ROMEO Y JULIETA

Named after William Shakespeare's tragic lovers, the origins of Romeo y Julieta as a Habano date back to 1875. Winston Churchill became a devotee of the brand. Following his visit to Havana in 1946, his name has not only been commemorated on a band but it has also served to describe the marque's most famous size. ## MONTECRISTO

The best known and probably most appreciated brand in the world. The name comes from the hero of Alexandre Dumas' famous novel 'The Count of Montecristo,' which was a firm favourite when read to cigar makers at the factory where it was founded in 1935.

MONTECRISTO Petit Tubo

£22

The Montecristo Petit Tubo is the perfect cigar to enjoy in today's hectic world. Elegantly presented in a stylish presentation tube this cigar is a must for any cigar lover. *90/10

HOYO DE MONTERREY

Hoyo de Monterrey owes its origin to the town of San Juan y Martinez, which lies at the heart of the Vuelta Abajo zone. "Hoyo" literally means "hole" and in this case describes the low-lying position of the plantation on the fertile banks of San Juan y Martinez river.

EPIPURE No. 2

£32

Floral and nutty, this well-made cigar also shows notes of leather and toasted almond before a sweet, honeyed finish. Elegant and balanced. *92/100

PARTAGAS

If there is one particularly famous cigar factory in Havana, it is Partagas. The factory was opened in 1845 by Don Jaime Partagas and it has been making the cigars that bear his name ever since. A Partagas is immediately recognisable by its deep, earthy flavour.

Serie D No.4 Tubos

£32

Well balanced and smooth, classic Cuban Partagas aroma and construction. Wonderful. A king amongst Robusto cigars. *90/100

Serie E No.2 Tubos

£45

The fattest Partagás in the Cuban portfolio is also the best Partagás that Cigar Aficionado smoked this year. A thick cigar with a wrapper the colour of milk chocolate. Some initial acidity dissipates to show big notes of caramel, wood and a mineral finish. *90/100

TRINIDAD

Trinidad, as a Habano brand, dates back to 1969 but for many years, like Cohiba, it was made only for gifts to foreign diplomats. Not until 1998 was it released for general sale and then only in small quantities.

VIGIA Tube

£38

The earthy tones throughout keep this smoke well balanced out from start to finish, truffle notes start this cigar off which slowly develops into a nutty finish. 89/100*
