THEY ARE STAMPED BY EMS (ENGLISH MARKET SELECTION) WHICH IS KNOWN AROUND THE WORLD FOR THE HIGHEST QUALITY OF CUBAN TOBACCO

COHIBA

Cohiba is the flagship brand of Habanos. It was created in 1966 for President Fidel Castro himself and was made at the then top secret, but now world famous El LLaguito factory.

SIGLO I

£28

This little corona starts out woody and minty but warms to show a warm walnut character that leads to a mint-chocolate finish..." 90/100

SIGLO II

£38

Predominantly earthy smoke that eventually develops delicious notes of almond paste and a sweet finish. *89/100

SIGLO III

£45

An oaky smoke with nutty underpinnings and floral qualities but a notably firm draw affected the score. The wrapper is a perfect shade of medio claro. *89/100

ROBUSTOS

£55

As a result of its strength and excellent blend this cigar has become one of the nine true Robustos. One of the most demanded Havanas in the market, a true gem. Complex intonations of oak wood, slivered almonds and vanilla build in intensity. *93/100

HOYO DE MONTERREY

Hoyo de Monterrey owes its origin to the town of San Juan y Martinez, which lies at the heart of the Vuelta Abajo zone. "Hoyo" literally means "hole" and in this case describes the low-lying position of the plantation on the fertile banks of San Juan y Martinez river.

EPICURE No. 2

£35

Floral and nutty, this well-made cigar also shows notes of leather and toasted almond before a sweet, honeyed finish. Elegant and balanced. *92/100

EPICURE ESPECIAL

£45

Smoking this cigar is like chewing on a luxurious caramel, as its sweetness is profoundly dense and elegant. Notes of coffee bean and chocolate-covered almonds add to its richness. *93/100

CIGAR MENU

H.UPMANN

Herman Upmann was a banker from Germany who so loved Cuban cigars that he moved to Havana in 1844 and set up as both banker and cigar maker.

His cigars live on as a fine example of an elegant, light to medium flavoured Habano.

H.UPMANN MAGNUM 50

£50

Predominantly woody with zesty hints of citrus and smoky peatiness of Scotch. *88/100

H.UPMANN MAGNUM 54

£45

There's a lemony, citrus quality to this fat robusto that frames its core of graham cracker, malted chocolate and floral notes. It exudes a cinnamon aroma as it burns. *90/100

H.UPMANN HALF CORONA

£20

This cigar is creamy with hints of coffee. Small attractive Habano, good draw with complex flavours for such a small cigar. An excellent short smoking break cigar. *89/100

H.UPMANN CORONA MAJORS

£30

A small cigar, but with impressive, spicy flavours. Notes of wood and vanilla carry traces of earth and nuttiness. *88/100

MONTECRISTO

The best known and probably most appreciated brand in the world. The name comes from the hero of Alexandre Dumas' famous novel 'The Count of Montecristo,' which was a firm favourite when read to cigar makers at the factory where it was founded in 1935.

MONTECRISTO Petit Tubo

£28

The Montecristo Petit Tubo is the perfect cigar to enjoy in today's hectic world. Elegantly presented in a stylish presentation tube this cigar is a must for any cigar lover. *90/100

MONTECRISTO Open "J"

£25

Rustic in appearance, this little smoke starts out with toasted coconut notes that warm to show plenty of robust earth and leather. *90/100

PUNCH

Punch is one of the very oldest Habano brands. Don Manuel Lopez of Juan Valle & Co founded it in the mid 19th century with an eye to the booming British market.

It is made at La Corona factory which also produces Hoyo de Monterrey.

Petit Coronations

£20

Starts out quite spicy and settles down to a very nutty, no-nonsense tobacco smoothness with a floral undertone. A very pleasant smoke. *89/100

CIGAR MENU

PARTAGAS

If there is one particularly famous cigar factory in Havana, it is Partagas. The factory was opened in 1845 by Don Jaime Partagas and it has been making the cigars that bear his name ever since. A Partagas is immediately recognisable by its deep, earthly flavour.

Serie D No.4 Tubos

£39

Well balanced and smooth, classic Cuban Partagas aroma and construction. Wonderful. A king amongst Robusto cigars. *90/100

Serie E No.2 Tubos

£48

The fattest Partagás in the Cuban portfolio is also the best Partagás that Cigar Aficionado smoked this year. A thick cigar with a wrapper the colour of milk chocolate. Some initial acidity dissipates to show big notes of caramel, wood and a mineral finish.*90/100

ROMEO Y JULIETA

Named after William Shakespeare's tragic lovers, the origins of Romeo y Julieta as a Habano date back to 1875. Winston Churchill became a devotee of the brand. Following his visit to Havana in 1946, his name has not only been commemorated on a band but it has also served to describe the marque's most famous size.

ROMEO Y JULIETA No. 2 Tube

£28

Flowers and herbs balanced by peppery undertones and sweet hints of caramel and cocoa. *90/100

ROMEO Y JULIETA No. 3 Tube

£22

Spice, cedar and leather make this mild cigar a nice little treat. *85/100

ROMEO Y JULIETA Short Churchill Tube

£40

An easy drawing, medium flavour, light strength cigar that is sweet in taste from the first puff. Earthy, spicy with big notes of walnut & a bit of maple syrup. *90/100

ROMEO Petit Churchills Tube

£34

A salty-and-spicy smoke whose leathery qualities are brought together by notes of coffee and walnuts, all making for a hearty cigar. *90/100
